

Brewery Assistant Manager

Two Thumb Brewing Co. was founded in 2013 by brewer Clayton Wallwork and his brother Brad. The inspiration behind the brand is the mighty Two Thumb mountain range, which overlooks Lake Clearwater, and the Wallwork family bach.

September 2017 saw the sale of the business to new owners and we are already looking towards bigger and better things. We are on the beginning of an exciting journey and are looking for enthusiastic hard-working folk to join us!

We are a tiny company with big plans. You will need to get your hands dirty doing all sorts of things brewery and beer related. As we grow there will be an opportunity for you to learn, realise your potential and choose what to focus on. But, right now we need someone prepared to do all sorts of things.

We don't get too hung up on job titles but were looking for someone whose organised, enthusiastic and hard working to help on all areas of the business.

What you'll do -Brewing and Production;

Support for Head Brewer and Production Manager, Dave in;

- ordering ingredients,
- stock control
- production planning
- brewing preparation, brewing and packaging
- kegging and bottling
- lots of cleaning of tanks and fermenters!

What you'll do -Sales and Marketing;

Support for Account Manager Dan in;

- Receiving and processing orders
- Packaging and posting goods for dispatch
- Customer services emails and phone calls
- Managing production of marketing materials, brochures and price lists
- Input to social media content
- Running customer tastings and events

What you'll do -Business Management;

Support for General Manager, Mark in;

- Building and running a Fillery and Beerhouse Brewpub from our central premises
- Creating and receiving orders and invoices
- Managing debtors and creditors
- Business administration
- Organising events, tours and staffing
- Market research

Our ideal applicant will have;

- Enthusiasm for the craft beer industry
- Ability to work undirected
- Experience of brewery or hospitality industry
- An understanding of licensing and food safety legislation
- Knowledge of basic business and accounting processes
- Understanding of the concepts of sales and marketing
- Duty Manager certification (preferred)
- Willingness to work some evenings to 7pm if required
- Good information technology skills

What we can promise you

It will be hard work. There will be very little structure to your job- we all do everything. Sometimes you will be working on your own with little direction. We will support you in everything. We will reward your hard work. We make good beer. We have fun.

Email your CV and cover letter to mark@twothumb.com for any questions, Call 027 5188764