PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Good things take time and the Brewers' Guild has now been around for eight years! With that time and increasing member numbers, the Guild has developed a real strength and maturity as the industry's representative body. Cementing financial stability has been a significant milestone in this process and means that now, more than ever, the Guild's future focus is on growing its value to the industry and its members.

This past year has again seen rapid changes in the New Zealand brewing industry. New Breweries have continued to enter the industry at an unprecedented rate. The growth in the breweries numbers has been reflected in a concomitant increase in Guild members suggesting that new breweries see the benefits of joining the organisation, as the industry's representative body.

A significant step for the Guild this year has been the employment of Phillippa Boa as our first paid position as an administrator. A person dedicated to running the day-to-day affairs will take some of the workload off the volunteers who have administered the Guild to date. It is a great credit to those who have volunteered over the years that the Guild to the strong position it is today.

The organisation of the annual BGNZ Beer Awards with the associated sponsorship, entry co-ordination, venue selection, judge co-ordination etc is always a massive undertaking for the Guild and in particular the committee's Chairman and BGNZ Awards Chief Steward, Craig Bowen (BeerNZ Ltd). The Judging of the beer entries moved to Christchurch this year as a suitable venue in Wellington could not be secured. The up-side being that this has made Craig's job of co-ordinating the record number of beer entries a slightly easier task... slightly! Let's also not forget the continuation of the very hotly contested Beer Writer of the Year Award and Morton-Coutts Trophy – The increasingly high calibre of entries is not making the selection of finalists and winners any easier. Our Administration Assistant, Phillippa Boa, has already proved to be a huge asset in taking on some of that work-load associated with the BGNZ Awards.

- Selection and employment of an administration assistant
- Co-ordination of the ever-growing Brewers' Guild of NZ International Beer Awards

Martin Bennett (Twisted Hop fame) has been our treasurer since the inception of the Brewers' Guild of New Zealand more than eight years ago. Martin continued his excellent work this year and also was instrumental in continuing the annual Industry Survey. The results of last year's survey created so much interest from media which in itself warrants the effort it requires. On top of that, however, the survey is now becoming an important historical record of the rapidly changing brewing industry in recent years. The most recent survey is currently out with our members and we encourage you all to participate when contacted so that the results can be published later this year.

The Guild Committee has continued to deal with media enquiries and media or public requests related to the brewing industry in New Zealand. We have had plenty of “press” this year and it appears that the Guild is becoming a “go-to” organisation for comment on social issues around brewing and the alcohol industry in general. Part of the Guild’s developing role as an intermediary, also involves getting information about regulatory and legislative changes such as labelling requirements relevant to the industry out to its member. Emails from the Brewers’ Guild and the website (www.brewersguild.org.nz) are our only way of effectively informing our members, so it is crucial that the mailouts are reaching you and that members check the Guild’s website regularly.

- Instigation and dissemination of industry statistics through our annual Industry Survey
- Continued work as an intermediary between the industry members, the media, government and the public
- Continued development and expansion of the BGNZ Certificate in Craft Beer

This year also saw the BGNZ Certificate in Craft Beer become a success in industry training throughout the country. We hope that the Guild in association with Tom and Vicki from Crafty Beers can continue to support and expand this education initiative over the next year. The Guild Committee will be looking closely at how it can expand education initiatives over the next year. It is important that we hear any of your suggestions, as members, on how you see the Guild developing its role in education and training in the industry.

There have been several exciting new initiatives for the Brewers’ Guild this past year: The BGNZ Development Fund round was announced and the first-round award went to Nathan Crabbe to assist in the development of brewery management software. As part of the award of $5000, the Guild negotiated a significant introductory offer for members once the software hits the market.

This year has also seen the first Annual Brewers Seminar Series where Guild members have the opportunity to attend, for free, training and information seminars relating to the brewing industry. We hope that this series develops over the next few years to be a must-attend industry highlight for Guild members.

Choice Beer Week was launched with greater fanfare this year. Centred on the week of the BGNZ Awards and Beervana, Choice Beer Week has had an increased uptake and involvement from local hospitality in Wellington. We hope that the concept of this week-long celebration grows and can be expanded to centres outside the Wellington region in the future.

- The Brewers’ Guild Industry Development Fund is up-and-running
- Re-launched and improved Choice Beer Week
- Instigation of the first Annual Brewers Seminar Series

Volunteering time to running the Brewers Guild of New Zealand ultimately detracts from work, businesses and family life for all the committee members. It is never an easy task and, unfortunately, because of these demands, attrition rates were high this year in the Guild Executive; this past year has seen the resignation of Stu McKinlay, Tim Sugden and Josh Scott due to work and family commitments. Thanks to all of them for their input. In return, we welcomed Jenny Cameron in the latter stages of the year to assist us particularly with keeping on top of legislative changes in the alcohol industry. Jenny is employed by the Brewers Association and a useful side-effect of her involvement with the Guild has been better communication with two of our largest members.

A big thanks, from all of the Guild members I'm sure, goes to all of the BGNZ Executive Committee members who were willing to donate time from their own businesses to help build the Brewers' Guild of New Zealand. I hope all members at some stage can do their bit to keep the Guild strong and relevant in the future of the New Zealand brewing industry.

The 2013 Brewers Guild of New Zealand Beer Awards, brought to you by Craftology, has attracted a record number of entries, with more than 540 received in total from 60 or so commercial brewers in New Zealand, along with several international breweries from as far away as North America, Europe, and Australia among others.

Thanks must go to the judges many of whom have flown in from all over the world to participate in the three-day judging event which was held this year in Christchurch for the first time. They all take their work very seriously and many have trained for years to get to a point where they can recognise subtle characteristics that determine whether a brew is awarded a gold, silver or bronze medal. We are delighted to welcome Matt Brynildson, Head Brewer of the high-flying North American brewery, Firestone Walker, who says "New Zealand has a great reputation in the international brewing community for quality and innovative brews, and being invited to judge beer at these awards is a real honour".

This year for our awards ceremony we warmly welcome back Te Radar as our Master of Ceremonies. Te Radar is our very own NZ media celebrity who will no doubt bring his usual and unusual take on proceedings.

Thanks finally to all of our sponsors. Please take a good look at who they are and do your best to support them like they have supported us tonight.

Cheers,
Ralph Bungard

President, Brewers Guild of New Zealand

Awards Summary

This year saw a record 541 entries in the Brewers Guild of New Zealand Beer Awards, brought to you by Craftology. For the first time these awards were judged in Christchurch with 24 judges assembling for 3 days to assess each beer on its merits. 41 Gold Medals, 50 Silver and 97 Bronze were awarded against the following criteria:

Beer Judging Award Criteria

Gold Medal

A world class beer that accurately exemplifies the style, or may vary slightly from style parameters, while displaying the proper balance of taste, aroma and appearance.

Silver Medal

An excellent beer that may vary from style parameters while maintaining close adherence to the style and displaying excellent taste, aroma, and appearance.

Bronze Medal

A fine example that may vary from style parameters and have minor deviations in taste, aroma, or appearance.

This represents a creditable 35% of all beers entered receiving a medal.

Congratulations to all winners. I would like to thank the hardworking team of judges and stewards for their efforts and assistance with this year's competition. The event simply couldn't run without you. Enjoy the rest of Choice Beer Week and I look forward seeing more entries at next year's awards.

Craig Bowen

Competition Manager and Brewers Guild Chairman.

Please Note:

Trophies are awarded to the highest rated beer commercially available in New Zealand.
